WAIVER OF RIGHT TO CANCEL

(Complies with Section 1689.13 of the California Civil Code)

		AND
_____ (Owner's Name)			_____ (Direct Contractor's Name)
_____ (Owner's Address)			_____ (Direct Contractor's Address)
_____ (City, State & Zip)			_____ (City, State & Zip)
_____ (Owner's Telephone)	_____ (Owner's FAX)		_____ (Direct Contractor's Telephone) _____ (Direct Contractor's FAX)
Email _____ (Owner's)			Email _____ (Direct Contractor's)

I _____ (Buyer's Name) having initiated a contract with _____ (Firm/Contractor Name) in connection with emergency repairs or service, for the protection of persons and/or real or personal property, do hereby declare that an emergency situation exists at _____ described as follows, which requires immediate attention: _____

SAMPLE

I acknowledge and hereby waive all rights to cancel this contract within three or five business days.

_____ (Owner's Name)		X	_____ (Owner's Signature)
_____ (Job No.)			_____ (Date)

 © 2026 Builder's Book, Inc. Bookstore, Publisher. All rights reserved. Permission must be granted for reproduction. Violators will be prosecuted. www.buildersbook.com

Note to Technician or Contractor: After informing Customer of his or her right to cancel within three or five days of the signing of the agreement (seven days following a disaster), and after giving the customer the "Notice of Cancellation" form, if the customer desires to waive their right to cancel, have the customer write in their own handwriting a personal statement that describes the situation, and acknowledges that they have been advised of the three or five day right to cancel, but that due to the emergency situation or necessity for the repairs, that they acknowledge and waive their right to cancel.

SAMPLE

 © 2026 Builder's Book, Inc. Bookstore, Publisher. All rights reserved. Permission must be granted for reproduction. Violators will be prosecuted. www.buildersbook.com